Conquer Transylvania's Alps - code Ro6.2RoHi

Challenging, tough - the Southern Carpathians won't give in that easily! You'll have to conquer them step by step, ridge by ridge up to the highest peak in Romania! Walk on the edge, and confront the bloody Count in his Kingdom - a rewarding victory for you in the end! One of the few tours in which the mountains are crossed from west to east in order to minimise the number of climbs!

DAY 1 Medias - Negoiu Hut

Tourists arrive by train in Medias. Our guide welcomes you and offers you a tour of the medieval centre of the town. Drive by car up to the foot of the highest mountains in Romania - Fagaras, above Porumbacu de Sus village the point where we no longer use the car. Prepare for hiking and walk up to Negoiu hut (altitude 1546 m) for accommodation.

DAY 2 Negoiu Hut - Negoiu Peak - Caltun Lake - Capra Lake - Balea Lake Hut

From the secondary ridge on which the hut is located we'll walk up to the main ridge and then continue the road to Negoiu peak, the second in altitude in Romania (2535 m). From here descend on Doamnei Clough or on the chains in Devil's Clough. After Caltun Lake we head to Balea Lake for accommodation in the hut.

DAY 3 Balea Lac Hut - Capra Lake - Dragon Window - Podragu Hut

From Balea Lake we walk up to Capra Lake. From the north side of Fagaras Mountains we move to the south side, we will walk near by the most difficult winter mountaineering route from Romania, the Albota - Arpsel ridge and then "Dragon Window".
